Partying or relaxing? Australia is the best place to be. Down Under offers a lot... whatever your taste, Australia has it.

Whitsunday Island

It is off the coast of Queensland, and is one of a group of islands off the coast of Australia. It is the perfect yachting destination. Whitehaven beach on this island is one of the main eco-friendly beaches in Australia. It makes someone feel as if they were at their happy place. Travel agencies offer packages that are inclusive of accommodation and transport (boat) on this attractive island. It has numerous camping sites, and one can spend days admiring the island's beauty, lying on the beach, swimming in crystal clear water, exploring Hill Inlet and cruising along beaches.

Palm Cove, Queensland

It is an amazing place to spend your vacation with your family. It has marvellous nature consisting of rainforests and palm beaches. Depending on your taste, one can choose from a variety of spa hotels and vacation houses. Your family will have access to amazing facilities to use including game zones, bike-riding areas, and secure swimming pools.

Hamilton Island

Due to its calmness, it is one of the most suitable places for a holiday. It is nearer to the Great Barrier Reef creating a chance to go snorkelling and diving to appreciate the unique underwater view. It also offers different activities such as hiking, fishing, mini-golf, arts and crafts.

Daylesford, Victoria

This is a spa country where you can relax peacefully in tranquillity. There are many spa resorts and secluded cottages in the area. It is truly a sultry setting.

Hunter Valley

It is situated in New South Wells, Australia. The Hunter brags some of the most talked-about restaurants and wineries out in the east. It keeps the vino flowing on a romantic holiday.

Lady Elliot Island

This island is mostly visited by those who want to have a unique experience. Nature lovers will enjoy their vacation here. It is the green zone of the Great Barrier Reef Marine Park in central Queensland. The very clean and clear waters of the Coral Sea around the island offer snorkel and scuba diving.

Wineglass Bay

Wineglass Bay is situated on Freycinet peninsula, Tasmania. Its beach is one of the top beaches in the world. It used to be the home of the native Aborigines and Oyster Bay Tribe. You can choose to explore the beach and sea, or go hiking, bush walking and rock-climbing, or camping at Coles Bay, which is nearer.

Lake McKenzie

The lake is on Fraser Island. The unclear and dark colours of the lakes do not exist here. On the contrary, the clean blue water and fine white sand bring the feeling of the seaside on this area. The lake is suitable for those who like picnics and camping due to its camping areas. It even offers you a free natural scrub ... Its soft sand leaves your feet feeling as though they have just had a spa treatment.

Merimbula

It is a good vacation place for the whole family. It is on the Sapphire coast of Australia. Merimbula is famous for its jazz festivals. It gives you a choice of being part of an active and noisy spot on one side, or you can choose any of the other peaceful chill-out places and beaches.

Before leaving for your vacation, make sure you have acquired the Australia visa from their embassy.
