

Diarise National Small Business Chamber Summit in February

The National Small Business Chamber Summit, one of Africa's largest entrepreneurial events offers over 100 sessions and seminars to help entrepreneurs grow their business. It takes place on 15-16 February at the Gallagher Convention Centre, Johannesburg.

It will draw on leading business experts and specialists and provide attendees with an opportunity to discuss every facet of doing business right; from start-up to growth and success.

Mike Anderson, NSBC founder and CEO says that each interactive exhibit, event, seminar, panel discussion and presentation is an ideal platform to gain valuable, practical insights to grow, learn, connect and network.

“The summit is for anyone serious about starting or growing a business. The objective of the event is to give enterprising and aspiring entrepreneurs and business owners the knowledge and tools they need to get ahead and become tomorrow’s legendary entrepreneurs.”

“Attendees will also have access to My Business Expo, Business Start-Up Expo, The Franchise Show, Finance Indaba and Trading Across Borders.

“As we enter our ninth year, we anticipate an excellent turnout of delegates, all of whom will benefit from the exhibitors, seminars and sessions. It is why the NSBC Summit is the most successful show of its kind in Africa, it is the place to be, to learn and to get ahead,” concludes Anderson.
