

South Coast Bike Fest 2017 presidents' meet and greet

The South Coast Bike Fest #SCBF2017 is hosting a VIP presidents' meet and greet evening on Friday, 28 April 2017 at the Margate Hotel Pool Deck.

“The bike fest is focused on providing a fun environment where people can enjoy quality food, music and all things bike-related,” said event organiser, Vicky Wentzel. “But more than this, the bike fest is a fantastic opportunity for the various biking clubs to get together, share stories and generally exchange useful information about the various aspects of biking.”

All South African biking club presidents are invited to attend; however, space is limited to 500 people.

Set in an extended event site on the KwaZulu-Natal coastal town of Margate, the inaugural South Coast Bike Fest boasts a number of entertainment and biking displays, expertly organised and secured for the biking community and beyond, free of charge.

Food, drink, entertainment

The event site also gives visitors the option of 8 festival bars, 12 food trucks as well as onsite eateries and pubs.

In addition, the #freefunseeker pass provides access to the Village Pier Rock Stage where South African musicians the Hairy Legged Lentil Eaters, Hinds Brothers, Circle of Stones and Phil Moffet, among others, will perform crowd favourites.

For those looking for even more musical entertainment, it's worth investing in the #fuelyourfun tickets which access the Carling Main Beach Stage. PJ Powers, Koos Kombuis, Jack Parow, Die Heuwels Fantasties, Gangs of Ballet, Jack Hammer Band, Fokopolisiekar, Tender Mavundla, Rubber Duc, Matthew Mole, Just Jinjer, the Kickstands, Prime Circle and Freshly Ground – and more - will put on a rocking performance during the four-day festival.

High-octane action will be taking place at the Experiential Energy Zone where the Powasol EnduroX Series introduces the country's top enduro, motocross, trials and fun riders. The Gravity Clash Action Sport's Show will see the most daring bikers putting on high-skilled performances using skateboards, BMX, FMX and trials bikes. The Dezzi South Coast Raceway will also be putting on the Dezzi Festival of Speed featuring high-speed biking action by top-level riders.

All bikes are welcome at the festival and entrance to the four-day event is free provided pre-registration for the #freefunseeker tickets is completed at www.quicket.co.za.
