

Alien Ant Farm's Ja Well No Fine tour comes to SA

US band Alien Ant Farm will perform in Joburg, Pretoria, Durban and Cape Town during October and November 2017 for their Ja Well No Fine South African Tour.

In the early 2000's, Alien Ant Farm became the soundtrack to teenage younger years with their Smooth Criminal cover song, a tribute to Michael Jackson.

Five albums later, album sales of over 5m units and tours across the United States, United Kingdom, Australia, Japan, featuring in movies such as American Pie 2, Spider Man, the video game The Punisher and the soundtrack for WWE's Tough Enough, and four top ten singles across the globe and a Grammy nomination for Best Hard Rock Performance – Alien Ant Farm now adds their Ja Well No Fine South African tour to their list of achievements.

“Middle8 is part of a dream project we are building, it is just a very small piece of a much bigger dream. Our goal for middle8 is to bring at least three international acts a year to South Africa, but rather than push them into large venues, we want to use smaller, lesser-known venues, allowing fans a more intimate experience without tickets exceeding R250.” said Dean Roberts, middle8's owner.

Ja Well No Fine South African Tour:

27 October – GoodLuck Bar, Johannesburg

28 October – Arcade Empire Halloween Party, Voortrekker Monument, Pretoria

31 October – Virginia Airfield, Durban

3 November – Mercury Live, Cape Town

Tickets are available from middle8.

R100 Super early bird tickets – Sold Out

R150 Early bird tickets – On Sale 19 July 2017

R200 General tickets – 1 August 2017

R250 At the door (unless event is sold out)

Alien Ant Farm will be supported by a cast of South African artists on all legs of the tour.

www.alienantfarm.com

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>