

Master class for International Animation Film Festival

ANNECY, FRANCE: The Media Faculty, Gulli and CITIA, backed by the SPFA (Animation Film Producers Association), have worked together to design a master class From Feature Films to Animated Series: Writing for the Whole Family to run during the International Animation Film Festival.

The training will revolve around such big names in international animation as Chris Miller, scriptwriter and director for Shrek 3, Joe Aguilar and Tom Wheeler, producer and scriptwriter for Puss in Boots, French experts Alexis Lavillat, producer, author and director at Normaal Animation, and Sébastien Thibaudeau, literary director at Zagtoon, as well as Christian Baumard, CEO, accompanied by Aude Thévenin, scriptwriter, and Khaled Amara, literary director, of the sitcom Scènes de ménage by Kabo.

As such the core matter for the master class will be real case studies.

For more information, download the release.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>