

Mayor threatens to attack Shabelle media journalists

Mohamud Axmed Nur Tarzan, the mayor of Mogadishu for Somali government has threatened to wipe out all journalists working for the Independently owned radio and television of Shabelle Media Network station based in the capital, Mogadishu.

"I'm committed to clean Shabelle journalists out of the world. You will see in the coming next few days this station eradicated from Somalia", said Tarsan in an angry voice during a chat on the paltalk with Somali youth Diaspora. He added that Shabelle Media has failed, instead of his Banadir administration.

"Somali and Ethiopia fought long time ago. We killed each other, but now the hostility has ended and Somali and Ethiopia are friends, he added.

Source: allAfrica.com

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>