

Angola to get new TV channels

Angola has set up a commission to work on modifying the country's Press Bill to allow for the existence of television channels other than the existing State-related ones. The future Press Bill will also allow for the establishment of privately-run short waves radio stations, said Media Minister Hendrick Vaal Neto.

Source: Angola Press Agency

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>