

Jennifer Rush to play four concerts in SA

Jennifer Rush is heading for South Africa to perform two concerts in Cape Town on 26 and 27 April, at the CTICC, Cape Town before going to Joburg to perform on 1 and 3 May, 2013, at the Emperor's Palace, Kempton Park.

Fans will remember her for such memorable hits as: Power Of Love, Ring Of Ice, Madonna's Eyes, Flames Of Paradise, Never Say Never, Ave Maria, Tears In The Rain and many more. She's an evergreen who has been going strong for more than three decades and shows no signs of slowing down.

The supporting acts will be The SA Youth Choir and Romanz.

Asked about what fans can expect from her concerts, she replied: "I will be performing many of my hits. I will be bringing my own band and two back-up vocalists with me. They too are very excited to be coming to South Africa. I actually asked my South African friends and their acquaintances which songs they think South Africa would like - aside, of course, from hit songs - and I think we have come up with a great song list, which will even include a few songs from the last CD, 'Now Is The Hour'."

Tickets are available from Computicket and range in price from R480 to R670.
