

Creative Circle Awards for December 2006

The Creative Circle Awards results for December 2006 are out and according to chairperson John Davenport, some of the work that month was "strong-ish" but not in all categories. "Sadly, radio was once again a bit thin. In fact so thin that it should probably be hospitalised and fed intravenously through a tube," says Davenport.

"The other categories had some good stuff in though," continues Davenport. "Well done to King James on what I think is their first ad for Kulula.com airlines. Have a super year, everyone."
