

Fleur de Caps' liquid gold nets another award

At London's 2010 International Wine and Spirit Competition (IWSC) final awards, held last week, Fleur du Cap was named the South African Producer of the Year, after winning two Best in Class Gold medals for its 2008 and 2009 Noble Late Harvest vintages.

The 2009 vintage botrytis dessert wine has just been named White Wine of the Year in Platter's South African Wines 2011, adding to its 2010 run of the 2010 White Winemaker of the Year Trophy from London's International Wine Challenge and the South African Veritas Double Gold medals for both vintages.
