

Jacqui Pearson heads Left

Left is a growing post-production company based in Hutton Court, Hyde Park, headed up by newly appointed Jacqui Pearson, formerly Head of Television at Hunt Lascaris TBWA.

A voice of experience in the world of productions, Jacqui has been an agency producer for the past 10 years. Initially she was at FCB and most recently at TBWA Hunt Lascaris for the past five years, occupying the role of HOD for two.

Jacqui will be heading up the team of creative talents at Left, all experienced and talented in their respective fields. Saki Bergh is Left's primary editor, who boasts numerous top post-production projects under his belt. Another talent at Left is Mikhael van Straten, who specialises in aspects such as design, animation and compositing. Julian Hester is Left's dynamic sound engineer and muso, who creates soundtracks for major advertising campaigns.
