

Thinkerneur appoints Keleabetsoe Rammopo as a strategy consultant

Thinkerneur has announced the appointment of Keleabetsoe Rammopo as a strategy consultant to work alongside the founder and strategy director, Bogosi Motshegwa. Rammopo started her career in 2016 as a strategist and has added digital skills that include digital strategy, content planning, content creation and community management on her resume.

According to a statement by Thinkerneur, Rammopo is set to bring in value not only to the agency but to its clients as well. "It is not easy to find strategists in the industry, and when you do find ones who know what they are doing, can execute with exceptional effort and quality, you bring them on board with no hesitation. Kele is an amazing strategist and thinker who is well experienced," said Motshegwa.
