

Mahlodi Molekane joins Tribeca as an account manager

Tribeca Public Relations has appointed Mahlodi Molekane as an account manager. Molekane will work with the team that works on the Bolt and Epson accounts.

Molekane has over six years of experience across various public relations disciplines having worked on a variety of consumer, corporate, financial services and business-to-business clients. She also has experience in social media and influencer management.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>