

Atmosphere Communications appoints new director

PR consultancy, Atmosphere Communications, has appointed one of its key senior staff members as a director of the fast growing business.

Lauren Volmink joined Atmosphere nine years ago and has gained extensive experience across both brand and corporate communications in the beauty, fashion, liquor, leisure and financial services industries. Volmink currently manages some of Atmosphere's core financial services clients with Sanlam and Santam in her portfolio.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>