

Native Child launches hair and beauty bar

Native Child, a South African brand that specialises in natural hair and skincare for women of colour, will launch its first hair and beauty bar at Cresta Shopping Centre in Johannesburg, on Friday, 1 October 2021.

Native Child's customers had been requesting a hair salon for years so that they could have their hair done. The move also addresses the lack of qualified African hair stylists in the industry.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>