

Lowveld wine show returns

The second Mpumalanga Wine Show will be held on 15-16 April 2011 from 5-9pm each evening at the Ingwenyama Conference and Sports Resort, on the R40 between Nelspruit and White River. Around 50 exhibitors will attend, including Diemersfontein, Raka, Laborie, Villiera, J C le Roux and Glen Carlou with Riedel crystal glassware adding sparkle to the show line-up. The festival promises an array of wines, olives and wine accessories. The Mpumalanga Wine Show is an annual event directed by wine authority Michael Fridjhon and organised by the team that turns out the country's top wine shows, both national and regional. The fifth Limpopo Wine Show follows in Polokwane at the end of July 2011. Tickets are available through Computicket.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>