

Conversations on Architecture in Johannesburg

The annual Conversations on Architecture (COA) Joburg 2012 will be held at Decorex SA at Gallagher Convention Centre on Wednesday 8 August 2012 from 9am - 4pm, followed by a Caesarstone cocktail networking function, as the event's sponsor.

The diverse line-up of international and local industry players will discuss contemporary issues in their fields, to educate and inspire delegates. Paradigm shifts will be debated, new technologies presented and the core design principles of the respective design fields explored.

Themed 'Architectural Expression in the 4g phase: Exuberant. Experimental', architect Hugh Fraser will convene the in-depth visual presentations that will be followed by panel discussions giving a different perspective on the various topics.

COA is aimed at architects and interior design professionals, property developers, interior architects, builders, design and decor journalists and students in the field of design and architecture. The South African Institute of Architects will be assessing and validating the conference and the activity will be validated for between 0.5 and 1 CPD credit.
