

Top women address Women's Day events

In celebration of Women's Month, three national events will feature Deborah Patta and Kate Emmerson as keynote speakers. In Johannesburg, guests will hear from Dr Mamphela Ramphele, leader of Agang South Africa, while in Cape Town and Durban, other local speakers will add to the day.

Patta will dig into the reasons 'Why it's great to be a South African businesswoman right now' and Emmerson, known as the quick shift diva and author of 'Clear Your Clutter', will give delegates the tools and inspiration to 'Live light and live large'.

Helen Nicholson, described as South Africa's 'Queen of Networking', will MC the events. The event, which lasts from 8 to noon, will take place at the Sandton Sun on 7 August, Elangeni & Maharani Hotel, Durban on 8 August and at the Pavilion Conference Centre in Cape Town on 13 August 2013. Tickets cost R995 excluding VAT. For more information, email shirley@solutionsgroup.co.za.
