

Africa Mining Indaba speaker lineup

The 20th annual Investing in Africa Mining Indaba will take place from 3-6 February 2014 in Cape Town at the CTICC. The conference aims to provide a global perspective on African mining.

The programme is designed to deliver information relevant to a global audience and create networking opportunities to further establish and nurture important business relationships.

The 2014 keynote speakers are:

- Colin Barnett MEd MLA, premier; Minister for State Development; Science, Western Australia
- Graham Briggs, CEO, Harmony Gold Mining Company
- Paul Collier, Professor of Economics and Public Policy at the Blavatnik School of Government, Director of the Centre for the Study of African Economies at the University of Oxford
- Makhtar Diop, VP, Africa Region, World Bank Group
- Robert M. Friedland, chairman, Ivanhoe Capital Corporation
- Eleni Gabre-Madhin, CEO, Eleni LLC
- David Hale, founding chairman, David Hale Global Economics
- Frank Holmes, CEO and chief investment officer, US Global Investors, Inc.
- Phil Newman, CEO, CRU Strategies
- Sipho Nkosi, CEO, Exxaro Resources Limited
- Susan Shabangu, Minister of Mineral Resources, Republic of South Africa

For more information, go to www.miningindaba.com.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>