

Sovereign Foods celebrates Proudly SA admission

Sovereign Foods celebrated its admission as a Proudly South African poultry producer at the company's recent Exco Roadshow in Port Elizabeth. The company supplies raw and manufactured value-added poultry products and meal solutions for South African households through the retail and quick service restaurant (QSR) channels.

Proudly South African admitted Sovereign Foods on its 70th birthday. The company achieved admission through assessment criteria which covers four areas: local content, quality, fair labour practices, and environmental standards.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>