

Cape Town home takes House of the Year 2006

click to enlarge

“Prince of Tides”, the home of Greg Shaw and Kobus Loots in the conservation village of Misty Cliffs, Cape Town, was announced the House and Leisure House of the Year 2006 at an awards ceremony at Weylandts, Fourways, in Johannesburg last week. Over the past year, in association with Weylandts, the magazine showcased 11 of the most inspiring South African homes, culminating in its annual House of the Year supplement in the March 2007 issue. The winner was decided by reader vote and a consensus by an expert judging panel.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>