

GGi Communications secures new partnerships

Strategic communications consultancy, GGi Communications, has been appointed to represent Dulux and JHI in South Africa.

GGi's well established consumer practice team will assist the Dulux marketing team with brand and consumer communication across the full portfolio of interior, exterior products as well as facilitate trade communications.

The corporate side of the consultancy will provide corporate communication counsel, strategy and implementation to property services company JHI.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>