

Bright Talks - Cape Town, 25 July

Issued by Bright Talks

23 Jul 2013

See Ravi Naidoo, creator of Design Indaba in action

Ravi Naidoo, the creator of Design Indaba will be taking the stage at the inaugural Bright Talks conference taking place on Thursday, 25 July at Kirstenbosch Gardens. Bright Talks has been developed and curated by Ross Chowles, ECD at The Jupiter Drawing Room. Ross has brought together a formidable group of speakers to inspire and stimulate the marketing and advertising industry. The speakers are Graham Warsop, Gavin Levinsohn, Margaret Jenks and of course Ravi Naidoo.

Ravi started his adult life with a degree in Physiology but ended up creating the world's leading annual design conference, Design Indaba. Ravi is an icon in the marketing world who can inspire the seemingly uninspireable to take up arms against a mediocrity.

Because Ravi has spent many a day with the world's most interesting creative minds, he has become an almanac of what makes great people great. Ravi will be talking about the value of having a clear vision - a talk not to be missed.

Tickets for the first Bright Talks event are available for sale through the website www.brighttalks.co.za. Tickets cost R2600 per delegate for the daylong conference. Lunch, mid-morning and afternoon teas and coffees are included.

Further information on Bright Talks can be found on the website, or by emailing joanne@brighttalks.co.za.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>