

The Franschhoek Cap Classique

The Franschhoek Cap Classique and Champagne Festival 'The Magic of Bubbles' takes place on 5 and 6 December, 2015, at the Huguenot Monument. The theme this year is Black and White with a touch of Bling.

You can relax in the grand marquee situated on the majestic lawns or mingle with winemakers as they present some of South Africa's finest Méthode Cap Classiques (MCC) and France's best Champagnes. Complementing the selection of MCCs are delights offered by local restaurants that have firmly entrenched Franschhoek's status as one of the world's premier culinary destinations.

"The Franschhoek Cap Classique and Champagne Festival allows visitors to sample exquisite, locally produced dishes and Cap Classiques with the naturally beautiful Franschhoek as a backdrop," said Nadine Mouton, Vice-President, Marketing, MasterCard, South Africa. "MasterCard is excited once again to bring this unique and priceless experience to wine and food lovers who admire the country's best offerings."

Who's there

Well-known local MCC producers at the event include Pierre Jourdan, Morena, Môreson, La Motte, Boschendal, Colmant, Leopard's Leap, Noble Hill, Plaisir de Merle, Anthonij Rupert Wyne, JC le Roux, Pongracz, Simonsig, Steenberg and Villiera. Newcomers include Maison Wine Estate, Grande Provence and Le Lude. Some of France's best Champagnes will be represented by brands such as Piper Heidsieck, Champagne Guy Charbaut and Veuve Clicquot.

Mont Rochelle are a few of the restaurants showcasing their menus during the festival.

The best-dressed couple will be awarded each day with a R5000 MasterCard gift card. Spend the prize money on more bubbly to take home with you, or plan a trip to one of the wine farms showcased at the festival.

Tickets cost R200 per person and include access to the festival, which is open daily between 12pm and 5pm, and a complimentary tasting glass and tasting coupons. Additional vouchers can be purchased on the day. Children under 18 years will be allowed free entry to the festival.

Book directly through www.webtickets.co.za. Use your MasterCard payment card to pay and receive a 10% discount on your ticket purchase, as well as a 10% discount on all purchases made at the festival.
