

New venue for Sexpo 2016

Sexpo Johannesburg set to take place from 27-30 October will be held at its new venue: the Johannesburg Expo Center, Nasrec.

Something to experience

This year's Sexpo sees the return of adult entertainment lounges including Teazers, Teaze-Hers, Pulse Boys Lounge, Coyotes Angels Club, LGBTI lounge and the Theatre Erotic. Other highlights include the BDSM Play Area, informative workshops, stage shows by Suzie Q and Frog Productions, appearances by Tanya Tate, Vicky Chace and other International Porn Stars, extreme body painting by Airvolution and Pricasso, described as "the world's most famous penile artist."

Something to learn

But it's not all sensual fun and high-spirited games – education and health also form an integral part of the Sexpo mix. There will be a limited access ladies-only area that's staffed by women. This will be a safe space where women can shop and explore their sensuality – complete with Champagne and wine bar. There is the Ultimate Man Cave, introduced this year, for the guys. It's a space that's dedicated to select male-interest lifestyle products. It also features a bar stocked with Kraft beers.

Tickets have been reduced down to 2010 prices as a gift during Sexpo's birthday celebrations and can be purchased at www.computicket.co.za and on event days. Silver tickets (R150) provide access into the show, while Gold tickets (R250) allow preferential queues and access into all the lounges free of charge.
