

L'Ormarins Queen's tickets are now on sale

Tickets for the 159th L'Ormarins Queen's Plate Racing Festival are officially on sale. The iconic Cape Town event will be held at the Kenilworth Racecourse on 10 and 11 January 2020.

Day one 'Fabulous Fridays' presents an exclusive LQP Garden Party, free-flowing bubbles, a harvest table lunch and live jazz with a fun-filled eight-strong race-card, featuring the exciting Gr.2 Sceptre Stakes and the hospitality option of The Somerset Room.

Day two 'Scintillating Saturday' presents The Style Village where you can enjoy the sunshine and horseracing with a dynamic 10-strong undercard. This includes the prestigious Gr.1 Paddock Stakes and three additional graded races for unstoppable equestrian entertainment. Also, experience the finest hospitality, local food vendors and the race for the coveted R1.5m purse.

Upping the ante is the 2020 layout reinvention. This means everyone gets a front seat to the action. Guests will be treated to an array of hospitality and entertainment options from the VIP Stud Club: Paddock Sites, The Kenilworth Room and the Peninsula Jazz Room.

All the excitement, adrenalin and bubbly leads up to the famous L'Ormarins Queen's Plate after party. Rub shoulders with the glitterati and dance the night away!

Do be sure to style yourself in L'Ormarins Queen's Plate colours of blue and white.

Tickets are on sale via Computicket.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>