

Jingle bells...?

click to enlarge

For the third festive season in a row, Anglo American has initiated Joburg's downtown Christmas tree project to celebrate the rejuvenation of the CBD. The project allows local artists to showcase their talents as various companies, both within the Anglo American group and others located in the CBD, commission trees from a selection of well- and lesser-known artists to frame 44 Main Street, Anglo American's Joburg corporate office since the 1930s.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>