

Mango Groove to be headline act at Kirstenbosch's NYE concert

It has been announced that Mango Groove are to be the headline act and Arno Carstens the opening act at the New Year's Eve concert at Kirstenbosch National Botanical Garden, Cape Town.

You can expect the best in South African pop when lead singer Claire Johnston and Mango Groove take the stage to bring in the New Year. With a career that spans our turbulent times, Platinum discs and international successes have set their music on a path that delights the whole family.

Add to this, rock singer Arno Carstens, whose career as a solo artist and lead singer of the Springbok Nude Girls has seen him enjoy more than 20 top-10 singles, five SAMA awards and more. He has shared the stage with such legends as the Rolling Stones, REM and others.

Price: R310 (one price only - no children's discount).

Tickets: www.webtickets.co.za or the Kirstenbosch Ticket Office: +27 (0)21 761 2866.

Gates open at 7pm. Concert: 8.30pm to 00.15am.

Note: The concert takes place irrespective of rain. No refunds are issued.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>