

Bowling for Soup to perform at 2018 LUSH Festival

The first batch of performers for the 2018 LUSH Festival has been announced. The LUSH Festival will take place at the Linwood Farm in Clarens, Free State from 29 March - 2 April 2018.

Artists announced so far are: Bowling For Soup, Kyp Malone from TV On The Radio, Pierce Brothers, Anton Goosen, Fokopolisiekar, TIMO ODV, Jack Parow, Goodluck, Dewald Wasserfall, Albert Frost, Desmond & The Tutus, PHFAT, BOO!, aKing, Grassy Spark, Van Pletzen, We Are Charlie, Retro Dizzy, Charlie Finch, Cap Guns, Hello Beautiful, Jon Casey, Kid Robot, Leeu, Missu, Nicpreen & the World of Birds, Okayyy, Robin Thirdfloor, Runaway Nuns, Silva Black & The Midnight, Tha Cutt, The Ceramics, Veridium, Deity's Muse, Yo Grapes, and Made For Broadway.

American rock band Bowling For Soup will bring their energetic performance to the LUSH main stage and promises to have the crowd going wild with hit singles such as the Grammy-nominated Girl All The Bad Guys Want and smash hit 1985.

The Owl stage will have festival-goers discovering great up-and-coming talent along with well-known fan favourites in a relaxed intimate setting. The Woods hosts the dance stage where a mass of tall majestic trees, lit up by a colourful light show, surrounds the energetic crowd led into the late-night hour by a stellar DJ and Electro line-up. The Willows main stage is the highlight of the live performance line-up with the biggest stage and sound setup at LUSH.

The Food Village will have a great variety of gourmet food trucks set up for a delicious selection of food and beverages to satisfy any need. For the active and adventurous at heart, LUSH Festival will also host a selection of activities with all info at www.lushfestival.com.
