

Arthee Rajkumar is the new Curro Holdings regional head

Curro Holdings has appointed Arthee Rajkumar as its new regional head. Rajkumar's responsibilities include assisting with and ensuring the implementation of approved plans and policies at allocated schools, alongside developing, promoting, and preserving the educational and business interests, reputation, and goodwill of Curro.

Rajkumar joins Curro from the Middle Eastern division of Taaleem-Edison Learning at which she held a leadership position. Rajkumar holds a bachelor of pedagogics in education, a bachelor of education honours, and a master of education, which were all attained from the University of KwaZulu-Natal.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>