

Win a Boston City College education bursary from Cradlestone Mall

Cradlestone Mall is offering lucky shoppers the opportunity to win one of two bursaries, worth R20,000 each, to study at Boston City Campus and Business College.

Boston City Campus and Business College has more than 40 branches around the country and offers over 100 study options through full-time or part-time study. Winners can choose from IT/ computer, management, accounting, marketing and sales, or secretarial courses - per their levels of qualification. The prizes are valid for 12 months. The bursaries cannot be redeemed for cash and are not transferable to other courses.

To enter, simply shop and complete an entry form at the Boston table next to Pick n Pay, located on the upper level. The competition closes on 28 February 2017. For more information visit www.boston.co.za

For more information about courses, careers, campus life, student loans and transport, visit the Student Expo at Cradlestone Mall from 10 - 11 February.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>