

Friends of Design Academy calls for applications for 2019 scholarship

The Friends of Design Academy of Digital Arts has announced that its Distinguished Talent Scholarship is open for applications for the 2019 academic year.

friends of design

Source: training.adobe.com

The design academy's Distinguished Talent Scholarships are private bursaries that cover 100% of tuition fees for chosen candidates. They are awarded by the academy, based entirely on merit, to applicants whose talent and creative potential meet the requirements set by lecturers and selection panellists.

There are four Distinguished Talent Scholarships available for 2019. Each corresponds to one of the academy's core full-time courses, which are:

- Graphic design and visual communication
- Web design and motion graphics
- Game graphics and multimedia entertainment
- Concept art

Who can apply?

To be eligible, applicants need to be able to prove that their creative spark has next-level potential and that they have the passion, dedication, and commitment to see their potential through.

The eligibility requirements are as follow:

- A South African ID/passport
- A matric certificate (or international equivalent)
- Creative skills and a portfolio

Applications open for MEST class of 2020

Tom Jackson 17 Sep 2018

Candidates may send their portfolios to info@friendsofdesign.net with 'Distinguished Talent Scholarship Application' in the subject line and request entry forms for their chosen course. The Friends of Design Academy of Digital Arts will send interested parties all the information they need. Lastly, applicants may also download the necessary course forms directly from the full-time course pages on the academy's website.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>