

Devmark announces new appointments

Property developer Devmark Property Group has announced the appointments of Heinrich Ehlers and Chanet Muller as managing director and director respectively at its newly launched division, Devmark Property Management.

The division will continue to provide services to the group as well as to outside property owners, body corporates and homeowner associations.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>