

Pearl Valley Golf Estates appoints new events manager

Lifestyle and golf destination, Pearl Valley Golf Estates has announced the appointment of Bianca Aucamp as events manager, spearheading a new focus on corporate and charity golf days, tournaments, conferencing and on-site events.

Aucamp was previously the marketing and events manager at Moyo Stellenbosch before she joining Pearl Valley Golf. Her experience in catering and restaurant management has provided an invaluable foundation in the hospitality industry.

She will present a flagship experience for golf tournaments, corporate and charity golf days as well banqueting events at the Estate.

"We are delighted to add Bianca to our exceptional team, where her broad experience in events, leisure and banqueting coincides with Pearl Valley's focus on corporate golf events, conferencing and team building," says Pearl Valley Golf Estates GM, Gawie Marx.

"We want to ensure our clients, be it corporate groups or leisure guests, receive the kind of value-added, creative and memorable event that one would expect at a leading golf and lifestyle destination," says Aucamp.
