

Workers strike at local Bloem radio station

The Citizen reports that Motheo FM employees have embarked on strike action. The employees are demanding a salary increase and have called for the dismissal of the managers of the Bloemfontein-based community radio station.

The presenters accused the station's management of failing to understand their managerial duties. The group picketed outside the station offices in the Bloemfontein CBD yesterday.

Read more on The Citizen.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>