

CapeTalk's new line-up

Cape Town's foremost talk radio station, CapeTalk, has a new line-up.

The "mouth from the south" Nigel Pierce has moved to the morning show and can be heard on 567mw from 6 - 9am covering a range of topics from the news of the day to sport, economics and general interest.

South Africa's most popular broadcaster, Tim Modise, is up next, simulcast on CapeTalk and 702 from 9am - 12 noon and focusing on all the pressing issues facing South Africa and the world today.

Stay tuned for the most informative news show in the country when Chris Gibbons hosts the Midday Report from 12 - 1pm.

Cape Town's spirited Lisa Chait takes to the air from 1 - 4pm followed by highly respected broadcaster, John Maytham from 4 - 7pm.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>