

Chrometco appoints new financial director

Minerals exploration company Chrometco has appointed Michael Scott as its new financial director with effect from 1 July 2015.

Scott is a chartered accountant with over 20 years experience within financial departments, largely within the resources sector.

He was the former group financial controller at Optimum Coal and the financial manager at Metorex.

"The Chrometco board welcomes Mr Scott to the company," Chrometco said.
