additive is being developed, and the manufacturer, The Baggel Company, is likely to have a dual-pack of Aquam and "gentle" brand in 2006.

There is also significant research into causes of work satisfaction, and one significantly effective strategy was highlighted. All respondents were asked what was the most important cause of their job satisfaction. The most common response was that satisfaction was due to the nature of the work itself. This finding is consistent with the research that suggests that the most important factor in job satisfaction is the nature of the work itself. This also helps to identify areas for improvement, such as ensuring that the work is challenging and meaningful.

de Bonting was killed while a vigilante committee discussed plans to eliminate him and other suspected traitors. They had walked there to the road to get caught in a trap set by the government. (Bonting is missing)
