

21 Icons Season III repeats on Mondays

The show, 21 Icons Season III, which premiered on Sunday 5 September 2015 at 7.27pm, with three-minute short films featured each week, will now be repeated on Mondays at 5.57pm on SABC 3. This is due to popular demand from viewers and part of the SABC's programming mandate to provide quality educational content and stimulate dialogue among its most influential audience, the youth.

The 21-week series will take a three-week hiatus from 13 December 2015 to 3 January 2016. Episodes one to three will be screened during the interval period and regular flighting starts again from 10 January 2016 on Sundays.
