

PaySpace receives International ISO 27001 certification

PaySpace has become the first Human Capital Management and Payroll Software service provider in Africa to receive the International ISO (International Organisation for Standardisation) 27001 certification for security and data protection.

This certification means PaySpace has achieved a level of security certification that is recognised globally and is the only African-based true cloud solution to do so.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>