

Arcadia Home Shopping gives away a Toyota Aygo

Issued by Arcadia Home Shopping

25 Apr 2013

Arcadia Home Shopping recently announced the winner of their lucky draw to win a brand new Toyota Aygo, and asked Dakar star Giniel de Villiers and 2013 Argus winner Herman Fouché to surprise the lucky winner.

Mrs Rachel Vilakazi, pictured below with the two sporting heroes, was overjoyed at her good fortune, "I was very surprised and excited and couldn't believe it - but it's really true! It couldn't have happened at a better time, because I really needed a car. I would encourage anyone to do business with Arcadia. Thank you so much for the friendly service and great products!"

Arcadia Home Shopping gives away over R1 million per year in prizes, excluding the special promotions and free gifts that are offered both in catalogues and online shopping. Arcadia is one of South Africa's oldest catalogue companies, and have given away millions of Rands to customers over the years. Says Maria van Rensburg, promotions manager, "There's nothing we look forward to more than giving stuff away, so it was with great pleasure that we broke the happy news to Mrs Vilakazi and her family."

For more information on Arcadia Home Shopping's value-driven offers, visit their webpage at www.arcadia.co.za, find them on Facebook or join their mailing list and stand a chance to be the 2013 car winner!

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>