This year's inaugural Top 500 Awards – an auspicious gathering of South Africa's economic elite - is proud to announce that prestigious luxury carmaker Jaguar Land Rover's East Rand dealership has come on board as Registration Sponsor for the event.

From the page to the stage, the Top 500 Awards will see key decision-makers and luminaries from South Africa's most powerful companies gather at elegant Melrose Arch in Johannesburg, on 7 March 2017, to determine who will be crowned as the kings of corporate South Africa.

Jaguar Land Rover is a brand that's synonymous with distinction and excellence, and its East Rand dealership is proud to be associated with an event that recognises and honours the cream of South Africa's financial crop. The Top 500 Awards engages executives and public sector leaders at the highest level - many of whom are also Jaguar Land Rover owners and clients.

"An event like this really epitomises Land Rover's ethos of going 'above and beyond'," says Joe Senekal, Brand Manager at Jaguar Land Rover East Rand. He adds that the dealership is excited about aligning itself with a prestigious event like the Top 500 Awards.

"It's the right kind of client profile for us. We're committed to associating our brand with events where our clients are honoured and recognised. Not only is this a great exposure opportunity for Jaguar Land Rover East Rand, but we look forward to actively interacting and engaging with existing and potentially new clients."

Jaguar Land Rover East Rand will have its most prestigious high-end vehicles on display at the awards ceremony. Look out for the pulse-quickenning Jaguar F-Pace and F-Type Coupe models, including Land Rover's exhilarating and luxurious new Range Rover Sport. VIPs will be registered for a test drive in the most premium vehicle experience of their choice.
