Pula Capital Partners, LRMG's investment arm, is delighted to announce the successful conclusion of a strategic investment partnership with well-known sales training provider, The Sales Institute.

“The Sales Institute is highly complementary to our sales optimisation consulting business, which focuses on enabling high performance in sales teams. We are now able to enhance our value offerings by reinforcing skills through the training the Sales Institute provides,” says LRMG CEO, Ricky Robinson.

The Sales Institute delivers high-quality sales and customer service training, both on-site or virtual, supported by a national network of skilled coaches and facilitators. In addition to the existing suite of courses, the Institute is also well known for developing bespoke training to meet clients’ requirements.

Founder of The Sales Institute, Tim Keys, echoed the importance of the partnership. “We are so excited to have found a collaborative partner that shares our passion for effective learning and is able to give us exposure to a much bigger customer base. We also know we will benefit significantly from Pula Capital Partners’ innovative approach to applying support, knowledge and networks to help us scale our business.”
