You Have To Be in to Win.

South Africa's Top Performing Companies publication, in association with African Access, proudly presents the pinnacle of business recognition and achievements.

The African Access National Business Awards honours South African Top Performers for their pioneering strides they have been taking in the business market-place. It also rewards market leaders in the corporate environment, and benchmarks excellence in leadership and vision.

This event will be hosted on the 27th May 2010 at the Sandton Convention Centre. Think of it as the Oscars of South African business. The highest of standards serves as a powerful way of raising the entries' corporate profile nationally, and extensive general and business media coverage of the red-carpet gala event leads to an unlimited array of PR opportunities, headlining your organisation. This is access to the prime time.

Why enter?

- Invaluable press coverage
- Boost staff morale
- Impress potential investors
- Gain prestige and recognition from peers
- Network with fellow Businessmen/women
- Raise your profile
- Increase respect from existing customers
- Help attract high quality new staff

- Increase your business growth

Categories are filling up so be sure to submit your entry today to avoid missing out on this premier opportunity!
