To celebrate 10 successful years of presence back in South Africa, Volvo SA held a glittering gala staff awards function at the dazzling Emperor's Palace. Held on Saturday, the 11th of December, the function recognised staff who had been part of the Volvo team for the past decade.

"The themed decor was carefully selected to meet the client brief of elegance, with splashes of Volvo blue and silver. This was carried through in all the elements including the scrolled invitations received in branded cigar tubes. As part of the fun Godfather theme, we incorporated mafia hats and feather boas into the table centre pieces and used other themed props and backdrops to bring the theme alive," says Dom Smith, MD of Provantage Events and Experiences.

A delicious three course meal was served, and guests were mesmerised by the Magic Man and entertained by the gorgeous Fever Trio, as well as a nostalgic AV of the past ten years together. Guests danced the night away to DJ Gareth in celebration of yet another successful year for Volvo SA. "Onwards and upwards," concluded Anders Linblad, Volvo SA President.
