6 Jul 2012

Next week Topco Media will be hosting South Africa's most future-focused urban planning and investment event.

The Smart Cities summit will take place on 10, 11 and 12 July 2012 in Durban and will provide a space where public sector problems can meet innovation and solutions.

The Smart Cities summit is endorsed by the Department of Environmental Affairs, and will cover every facet of modern city management. Mayors, MECs, ministers, deputy ministers, and international speakers will be in attendance.

Visit the Smart Cities website for more information: www.smartcities-africa.co.za.

Seats are filling up fast! To book your seat, contact Deirdre O'Neill on deirdre.oneill@topco.co.za or 086 000 9590.
