

Audi SA launches EV charging campaign at local airports

Audi South Africa has launched a nationwide awareness campaign to promote electric mobility. The luxury car maker has installed mini versions of its electric vehicle chargers in Bidvest Premier Lounges at Cape Town and OR Tambo International Airport. Until January 2024, travellers are encouraged to charge their phones using these chargers while waiting for their flights, aiming to change perceptions about EV charging in South Africa.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>