

GALA to hold seminar on social media practices

During its 15th Annual Global Meeting in New York, the Global Advertising Lawyers Alliance will be holding an advertising law seminar on social media in the United States and across the globe. The event will be housed at The Penn Club in NY on 30 March 2017 when GALA's annual global meeting commences.

The seminar is set to consider the best practices for social media marketing compliance in the USA and the rest of the world and will feature the expertise of speakers from seven different countries. Jenny Pienaar, a partner at Adams & Adams in South Africa will be one of the speakers in the social media globally panel.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>