

New chief sales and marketing officer for Dark Fibre Africa

Praveen Govender has been appointed as the new chief sales and marketing officer for Dark Fibre Africa. Govender will be tasked with leading formulation and execution of DFA's sales and customer engagement strategy.

Govender has several years of experience in the ICT industry and was previously communications sector consulting lead at IBM, software country manager at Hewlett-Packard and the regional sales manager at Cisco.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>