

Henriette De Villiers, François Smit represent SA at INPUT

AFDA Johannesburg dean Henriette De Villiers and South African Communications Association head of postgraduate studies François Smit were selected as the national coordinators of the International Public Television Conference (INPUT) in South Africa.

The national coordinators are TV professionals, who are appointed by the INPUT international board. National Coordinators represent INPUT to their regional constituencies.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>